WATER SUPPLY AND SANITATION PROJECTS
SAHIB SINGH VERMA

Will the Minister of RURAL DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) the components of the scheme of `Water Supply & Sanitation Project` being financed by the World Bank in July, 1998;

(b) whether this scheme has since been started;

(c) if so, the progress made in its implementation as on date component-wise; and

(d) if not, the reasons therefor?

Answer

MINISTER OF STATE FOR RURAL DEVELOPMENT (SHRI A.RAJA)

(a): As per information furnished by the Delhi Jal Board, the project includes schemes in the water and sewerage sector.

(b), (c) & (d): An agreement for project preparation facility (PPF) between the Government of India and the World Bank for a sum of US$ 2.5 million has been signed. The process of appointment of consultant to provide consultancy under the PPF scheme is currently in progress.
